

To: All CRREL members of Web 2.0 for Fed S&E CoP

The CRREL members had our own meeting today in the Gow Conference Room.

There are some action items for all CRREL members, even those who missed the meeting.

We covered:

1. Still a need for our group - we are living in exponential times and have to keep up

see Did You Know? V 3.0

2. How to use our Wiki without getting too many emails (see "Setting up KM gov site.doc")

3. How to use our learning site (see "Using training MindMap.doc")

4. Tutorial video - what is a wiki

What's next:

1. Make sure all of the group knows how to use our tools: the NASA wiki, the Mind 42 training mind map, and web meetings 2. Next Monday we will have another working lunch meeting, but via ATT Live Meeting. You can either participate from your desktop or come to Gow.

*** ** Action Items for all CRREL members this week: *** ** 1. Log in to our NASA's KM.gov and set preferences so you don't get all of KM.gov's emails. (see "Setting up KM gov site.doc")

- if you forgot your login info, goto "Sign in" then "Forgot your username or password" your username would be first initial then middle initial then last name, no spaces. For example, mine is RMDETSCH your email is probably the one I sent this email to if you don't receive update email within 4-business hours, check your spam folder

if all else fails, send your contact info to the NASA administrator ellen.r.trevarthen@jpl.nasa.gov

2. Log in to our NASA wiki <http://wiki.nasa.gov/cm/wiki/?id=6742> and set alerts so you get email whenever the site is updated

(see "Setting up KM gov site.doc") 3. Set up account under Mind42.com; let Richard know your account name; I will add you to our Mind Map. Goto map and start learning.

3. If you are not comfortable with web meetings, let me know you want a test web meeting before next Monday.
